

Oxford Round Table Evaluation Centre

2007 Evaluation #71

- The general clarity of the invitation was adequate.
- Information for my Institution was: Not sure what info for the institution was provided.
- The Round Table academic theme was good.
- Overall rating of the Pre-conference communication was good.
- The Round Table format was good, but there were too many presentations. More time for discussion was needed.
- The opportunity to present your ideas was good, but limited due to time constraints.
- Some of the presentations were excellent, while others were weak. Efforts need to be made to better screen proposals. Perhaps more direction on providing depth and quality presentations would be helpful.

2007 Evaluation #72

- The general clarity of the invitation was fine, but would like to know how I was nominated.
- Information for my Institution was: Not sure what this means.
- The Round Table academic theme was Early Childhood Education.
- Overall rating of the Pre-conference communication was excellent.
- The opportunity to present your ideas was fine, but no real time to discuss or collaborate.
- The presentations were generally good, with one which was just plain amateurish . . . how did that abstract get through? There was no substance to it at all . . . not up to standards at any university, and definitely not Oxford. It was like sitting through a middle school oral report.
- College accommodations were fine, but bathroom situation uncomfortable.
- The formal academic pace of the conference was too rapid for reflection and conversation.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.

2007 Evaluation #73

- The general clarity of the invitation was clear - straightforward.
- Information for my Institution was helpful in getting me funded to go.
- The Round Table academic theme was appropriate.
- Overall rating of the Pre-conference communication was excellent.
- The Round Table format was appropriate and could have been quite stimulating.
- The opportunity to present your ideas was inadequate. Too many presentations.
- The presentations were uneven. Some were excellent – some were a waste of time.
- College accommodations were adequate, nothing to write home about (but it's a college!)
- The formal academic pace of the conference was fine, except for having too many papers.
- Overall rating of On-site Substance and Organization was excellent.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was good.

2007 Evaluation #74

- The general clarity of the invitation was excellent.
- Information for my Institution was quite clear, except that my Dean's assistant had to call to verify the payment method. It would have been helpful if the website or mailings made it more explicit how an institutional payment could be made that was not by credit card of some sort.
- The Round Table academic theme was ideal, great cross-section of topics from preschool level up through the primary grades. It would be invaluable if the EC Roundtable could also include presenters from other countries, in addition to the US. It would also be very interesting to have a presenter from England share some information with us about the early childhood education system in the UK.
- Overall rating of the Pre-conference communication was excellent.
- College accommodations were okay, but taking a bath in a rather chilly bathroom was unpleasant. I would have preferred at least a shower nozzle that could have attached to the tub faucet.
- Overall Rating of the Round Table experience was excellent.
